

Celebrity Golf Invitational Benefits Barbara Sinatra Children's Center at Eisenhower

The 26th annual Frank Sinatra Celebrity Invitational, benefiting the Barbara Sinatra Children's Center for Abused Children, tees off February 20-22, 2014. Eagle Falls Golf Course and Fantasy Springs Resort Casino in Indio will host the event, which is one of the longest running and most successful fund-raising events of its kind in the Coachella Valley. Starkey Hearing Technologies returns for the sixth year as the title sponsor, and supermodel Beverly Johnson, one of Mrs. Sinatra's dear friends and a Children's Center supporter, will co-host the event.

Celebrities, amateur contestants, loyal sponsors and enthusiastic spectators look forward to the "celebrity friendly" event known as "Frank's Little Party in the Desert." The popular two-day, celebrityamateur golf tournament also features three nights of dinner parties with entertainment and a spectacular luncheon and fashion show which are dedicated to the memory and music of Frank Sinatra. This year's luncheon and fashion show will be presented by Troy with designs by Jackie Rogers.

Barbara and Frank Sinatra founded the Frank Sinatra Celebrity Invitational in 1988 to raise funds for the Barbara Sinatra Children's Center, which opened in 1986 at Eisenhower Medical Center. The mission of the nonprofit center is to provide counseling for victims of physical, sexual and emotional child abuse and to focus on prevention, community education and breaking the cycle of abuse. Services are provided regardless of a family's ability to pay.

Gallery admission is free for the event and cameras are welcome! For tournament information and admission, visit FrankSinatraGolf.org or call 760-674-8447.
